NEW MASONS EVENING · CARD 1 OF 3

Who's in your corner

Your Personal Mentor	One Brother, assigned to you. A friend first: the person you ring, message or sit next to without feeling you are a bother. Your first call for any question.
Your Lodge Mentor	Co-ordinates mentoring across the Lodge; makes sure every new member has a Personal Mentor. Your link to the Province.
The Almoner	Welfare: health, money, family, bereavement. Anything that touches your life outside the Lodge.
The Provincial team	Provincial Grand Mentor, Deputy, and five Assistant Provincial Grand Mentors. Here to help, never to inspect.

The four principles

1 PREPARE	2 GUIDE	3 SUPPORT	4 ENLIGHTEN
Ready for each stage before it happens. No surprises.	Accurate, honest, timely information. Never dependency.	Present, responsive, compassionate. "How can we help?"	Understanding, curiosity and enjoyment, for life.

The journey ahead

Initiation	Entered Apprentice. Your first night, with your mentor beside you.
Passing	Fellow Craft, usually six to twelve months on. You answer the questions in open Lodge.
Raising	Master Mason. Visiting opens up fully; a beginning, not a summit.
One Journey	The Royal Arch completes Pure Antient Masonry, on your timing. Information, not recruitment.
Office	Only when you are ready, and only if you want it.

Two rules run through every stage. No surprises: you will always know what is coming next. And you set the pace, never the calendar. Family, Work, Masonry: in that order, always.

NEW MASONS EVENING · CARD 1 OF 3

What to wear

Always check the Summons first. If it says nothing different, this is the standard.

Suit and shirt	■ Dark lounge suit, preferably black; striped morning trousers with a black jacket are acceptable ■ Plain white formal shirt, single or double cuff ■ Tails only for Active Provincial Officers at Provincial Grand Lodge
Socks and shoes	■ Plain black socks. Not navy, not patterned, not novelty ■ Black shoes, polished. Not trainers, boots or Crocs
Black tie nights	■ Some Lodges dine black tie always, others only at Installation. The Summons will say ■ Dinner jacket, smart dress shirt, black bow tie
Tie	■ Provincial tie in any Hertfordshire Lodge; Club tie at FHLBC visits, Gladsmuir 1385 and Provincial Grand Lodge ■ Outside Hertfordshire, a plain Masonic tie
Pins	■ Yes. Up to three is the convention; Masonic or charitable, never political. FHLBC members wear the Club pin
Jewels	■ Once you are a Master Mason, up to three. Royal Arch jewel nearest your centre line, then the Tercentenary jewel, then others
Rings and gloves	■ A ring is personal preference. Square and compasses on gloves: avoid dark blue ones unless you hold Provincial or Grand rank

Full Dress / Undress on a Summons applies to Provincial and Grand Officers, not to you yet. Letters after names are Provincial or Grand ranks; nobody minds being asked what theirs means.
